Tutoring Experience

For the past 9 years, I've provided personalized tutoring to students in IB, A-Level, and IGCSE Chemistry. My experience spans working with students of different skill levels, ensuring they develop a strong foundation and succeed in their exams.

I've also tutored students in advanced chemistry topics, preparing them for competitive exams and university-level courses. Many of my students have gained admissions to top universities, and I continue to guide them in mastering the complexities of chemistry.
